THE [Numb. 635.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, July 7, 1757.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, for April.

MUCH has been ſaid of the partial Behaviour of the Spaniards, in Behalf of the French, during the Courſe of the preſent War, and a recent Inſtance of the Seizure and Detention of the Antigallican's Prize in the Port of Cadiz, has been brought as a Proof of that Partiality. As that Affair has become National, and has made ſome Noiſe abroad, an authentic Account of the Whole, from the Captain's Journal, may perhaps be acceptable to the Public, and is as follows:

ON December 26, cruizing off the Coaſt of Galicia in Spain, at ſix in the Morning diſcovered a Sail ſtanding in; we gave Chaſe under Spaniſh Colours, and being but little Wind, we rowed, and by that Means gained on the Chaſe; at twelve got within Gun Shot; ſhe gave us a Gun, upon which we then down Spaniſh Colours and up Engliſh; ſhe then gave us a Broad-ſide, and killed three Men: We did not return a Gun 'til we run cloſe along Side, and engaged her 'til Three, when ſhe ſtruck. We found her to be the Duke de Penthievre.

January 6, 1757. At Eleven this Morning off the Rock we took in Pilots for Liſbon, and got within the Harbour's Mouth, but a ſtrong Gale coming on, ſplit the Prize's Main-top Sail, and drove her out to Sea. We followed her out, and ſent our ſmall Boat aboard her with ſmall Sails; the Boat in returning with two Men was loſt. From that Time to the 22d we were beating to Windward, endeavouring to make Liſbon, but could not; therefore reſolved to bear away for Cadiz, it being the firſt Port we could make; our Diſtreſs being ſo great, the Prize not ſteering, all her Sails in Pieces, and our Ships ſo leaky that the Pump was almoſt conſtantly going, our Bread almoſt expended, and not above Ten Days Proviſions left; beſides receiving Advice by the St. Alban's Man of War, of five Sail of French Men of War to Convoy their Indiamen home: For theſe Reaſons we went to Cadiz.

January 23, We arrived at Cadiz, but were obliged to perform Quarantine for three Days.

On the 27th, the Conſul, Vice-Conſul, and his Clerk came on board, and took the French Officers Depoſitions, who wrote them themſelves, and in the French Language, who, among other Things, voluntarily declared upon Oath, that when they engaged us, they were diſtant from the Light-Houſe of Corunna between two and three Leagues; that they did not ſee any Fort or Land, or hear any Guns fired.

On February 11th, we had Leave from Admiral Navarro for our Ship to go to the Caraccas, to be refitted at the King's Dock: The Prize remained in Cadiz Bay ſafely moored, with ſome of our own Officers and Crew, 'til her Condemnation arrived from Gibraltar.

On the 19th, the Governor ſent for the Conſul, and told him he was obliged to ſend Troops aboard the Prize, having received Orders from Court to detain her. The Conſul (Mr. Goldſworthy) proteſted againſt it in the ſtrongeſt Manner, as it was contrary to our Treaties, and an open Violation of the Laws of Nations. The Governor ordered all the Artillery on the Walls to be loaded, Gunners with their Matches lighted, ſix Companies of Grenadiers ordered to be ready with nineteen Rounds of Shot, two Companies took Poſſeſſion of the Prize, ſeized our Arms, Magazines, &c. two other Companies marched to the Forts, and the other two marched on board the Antigallican at the Caraccas, which laid like a Hulk, for the Guns, Arms, Sails, Maſts, &c. were in the King's Warehouſe. In the Evening the Governor being conſcious of the Illegality of ſuch Proceedings, ſent Orders to withdraw the Troops from on board the Prize and the Antigallican, after having broke open ſeveral Cheſts, and carried away every Thing they could find of the Officers and Crew, and the very Beef that was Dreſſing for Dinner.

February 26, The Governor ſent and told our Conſul, he had Orders to deliver the Prize to the French Conſul: Capt. Foſter was ſent for, and acquainted with the Governor's Intention; he told him he would put the Prize in his Hands 'til there was a Hearing at the Court; but the Governor refuſed it, and would inſtantly deliver up the Prize to the French Conſul. The Captain, as there were Engliſh Colours flying on board, ſaid they ſhould never be ſtruck but by Force, and then withdrew and went on board. The Governor, terrified at the Captain's Reſolution, conſulted with Admiral Navarro what to do, and demanded his Aſſiſtance of Ships to execute his Orders; the Admiral prudently denied any, but the Governor inſiſting in the King's Name, he was obliged to comply, and ordered the America, a 60 Gun Ship, and a Frigate of 36 Guns, to obey the Governor's Orders.

March 2, The Ship being along Side the Prize, and the Frigate on her Bow, ſent an Officer on board and ordered the Engliſh Colours to be ſtruck, which the Captain forbid; but at the ſame Time offered to receive thirty or forty of the Spaniards aboard, till the Affair was decided at Madrid, which he refuſed; and at Ten both the Spaniſh Ships began to fire, and continued, with the lower Deck with Round-Shot and Grape, for Three Quarters of an Hour. At the ſecond Broad-ſide our Colours was ſhot away; they ſtill continued firing Half an Hour after, and killed one Seaman, and wounded ſeven, five of whom are ſince dead. The Prize never fired a Gun, nor made any Reſiſtance. An Officer came on board, and took our Captain on board the Commodore, and ſent him aſhore. The Captain, with Conſul Goldſworthy, waited on the Governor, to know his further Commands.

March 3. In the Morning ſome Spaniſh Troops were ſent on board the Prize, with the Town Major, the French Conſul, and Monſ. Roſe, her late Supercargo, and ſent all our Officers and Crew aſhore, where they were received by Soldiers, and conducted inſtantly to Priſon, or rather to a Dungeon; and a little Time after they ſeized Capt. Foſter, at our worthy Conſul's Houſe, and carried him to the ſame Priſon, without any Proviſion or Neceſſaries, but what the Conſul ſupplied us with.

On the 5th, a Courier arrived from Sir Benjamin Keene, our Ambaſſador at Madrid, with an Order to our Conſul from Mr. Wall, the Spaniſh Miniſter, to the Governor of Cadiz, "to ſtop all Proceedings whatſoever againſt the Prize," upon which the Captain and Crew were diſcharged from Priſon, "and to conſult with our Conſul alone, and to let her remain in our Poſſeſſion, but not to ſuffer her to depart from this Port till further Orders;" upon which our Conſul demanded Repoſſeſſion of the Prize, which he refuſed.

On the 6th, the Condemnation of the Prize arrived from Gibraltar, and was condemned only by the Depoſitions of the French Officers on the 28th of February, being two Days before ſhe was forced from us.

The next Information we received was, that on March 18 the ſaid Prize was delivered up to Capt. Foſter, the Governor of Cadiz was diſgraced, the French Conſul ordered to make good all Damages done to the Captors, and reprimanded for attempting to impoſe upon the Spaniſh Court, who had taken ſuch Care of the Britiſh Property, that the Hatches, when Capt. Foſter retook Poſſeſſion of her, were under the Spaniſh Seal, and every Thing found in the ſame ſafe Condition, as when the Poſſeſſion was taken from him.

That the Prize was reſtored, appeared certain from the following Letter to the Hon. Mr. Pitt, late one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State:

"SIR,

"WE the Managers and Owners of the "private Ship of War the Antigallican, "together with the laudable Aſſociation of Anti-"gallicans, eſtabliſhed at the Lebeck's Head in the "Strand, muſt think ourſelves loſt to all Senſe of "Honour, of Gratitude, and Concern for our "Country, were we not to take the earlieſt Op-"portunity to return you our ſincereſt Thanks, "for your ſeaſonable and ready Execution of his "Majeſty's Orders on our Behalf, in Regard to "our Ship and Prize, which have been ſo long "detained in the Bay of Cadiz, by the cruel, "treacherous, and partial Behaviour of the Go-"vernor, after killing and wounding ſeveral of "the Men, and impriſoning our Officers and the "Reſt of our Crew, in open Violation of the "moſt ſolemn Treaties, notwithſtanding ſhe was "before legally condemned to us.

"The Eaſineſs of our Acceſs to you, and your "generous Protection in our Rights, and polite "Treatment in your Office, filled every Heart "with Joy rather to be conceived than expreſſed, "as well knowing that your Undertaking this "Affair was more than an Omen of its Succeſs.

"Your whole Behaviour in the Affair has been "ſo noble, ſo ſteady, and uniform, that we are "at a Loſs where to admire you moſt, in the "Deſign, the Proſecution, or the Event.

"Believe us, Sir, when we ſay, that after pay-"ing our moſt profound Duty to his Majeſty on "this Occaſion, we think ourſelves bound in "Gratitude to acknowledge you as the next im-"mediate Cauſe of the Reſtitution of our Ship "and Prize; and we do with true Sincerity of "Heart moſt ardently wiſh and pray, that his "Majeſty may never want a Miniſter like you, "to hear with Impartiality, to adviſe with Can-"dour and Judgment, and with the moſt ſteady "Reſolution to procure a proper Redreſs for the "Grievances of his Majeſty's Subjects. We are, "with the utmoſt Deference and Reſpect, Sir,

"Lebeck's Head, Your moſt obliged, and

April 15.

AT a numerous Court of Common-Council at Guildhall, Mr. Deputy Hodges made a Motion, that the Freedom of this City be preſented to the Right Hon. William Pitt, late one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State; and to the Right Hon. Henry Bilſon Legge, late Chancellor of his Majeſty's Exchequer, in Teſtimony of the grateful Senſe which the City of London entertain of their loyal and diſintereſted Conduct, during their truly honourable, though ſhort Adminiſtration; their beginning a Scheme of public Œconomy, and at the ſame Time leſſening the Extent of miniſterial Influence, by a Reduction of a Number of uſeleſs Placemen: Their noble Efforts to ſtem the general Torrent of Corruption, and to revive, by their Example, the almoſt extinguiſhed Love of Virtue, and our Country: Their Zeal to promote a full and impartial Enquiry into the real Cauſes of our late Loſſes in America and the Mediterranean: And, laſtly, their vigilant Attention to ſupport the Glory and Independency of Great-Britain, the Honour and true Intereſt of the Crown, with the juſt Rights and Liberties of the Subject; thereby moſt effectually ſecuring the Affections of a free People to his Majeſty and his illuſtrious Family:——Which Motion ſeemed to have the Approbation of the whole Court, and the Recorder was going to make a Declaration as their unanimous Sentiments; but was ſtopt by Sir John Barnard, who, alone, held up his Hand againſt it.

A young Man belonging to the Patrole at Islington, and his Brother, a Boy in the Charity School there, being both in Bed together, were by a Pug Dog which used to lie in the Room, licked over their Faces while in Bed; and in about two Days after, the eldest found himself very uneasy, and went to a Surgeon, who bled him; but soon after he foamed and barked as a Dog, and tore the Vein open, and although proper Means were used, bled to Death. The Boy on this was sent to the Salt Water to be dipped, but in his Way died in the greatest Agonies.

April 28. A Resolution pass'd the House for Raising 1,186,900 l. being the remaining Sum not subscribed of 2,500,000 l. intended to have been raised on Lives with Benefit of Survivorship, &c. at the Rate of 3 per Cent. with a Life Annuity of 11. 2s. 6d. for every 100 l. subscribed. ROME, February 25.

SOME Weeks ago the Marquis de Stainville, the French Ambassador, had an Audience of the Pope, and imparted to him the new Declaration which the Most Christian King caused to be registered at the Bed of Justice he lately held about the Bull Unigenitus. His Holiness said to the Ambassador, "I have been extremely affected with the Troubles that have so long reigned in the Church of France, and have thought that the putting an End to them, was the most glorious and most useful Act I could do: It was with this View that I dispatched the Brief which I thought might tend to this salutary Object. If the Event does not answer the Intention, one must conclude, that the Matter is out of the Power of Man, and that the Almighty will put an End to those Troubles when he sees fit. As for my Part, I shall at least carry to the Grave the comfortable Reflection of having done all that appeared to me humanly possible to restore Peace to the Gallican Church."

The Public never yet knew how much the Pope laid these Broils to Heart. His Holiness, before his Elevation to the Pontificate, had begun a Work on this Subject, which he communicated but to a few of his most intimate Friends: It is also known that he has since applied himself farther to it; but it is certain he was firmly resolved, that this Work should not appear in his Life-Time. [From this Account one may conclude, to the Honour of the present Pope, that he is too honest and sensible to imagine himself invested with INFALLIBILITY: And none but Knaves, Fools, or Madmen CAN think him so.]

BOSTON, June 20.

Monday last a young Lad and a Negro Man were taken Prisoners by the Indians, about 3 Miles from Canterbury, in New-Hampshire Government.

The same Day arrived here the Privateer Brig King of Prussia, Captain Rosse, of Rhode-Island, and the Privateer Brig Wasp, Capt. M'Namara of Halifax, (as mentioned in our last) who brought in with them a fine French Ship, called L'Amiable Jean, of about 250 Tons, mounting 12 Carriage Guns, and had 60 Men, with about 18000 wt. of Indico, 242 Hogsheads of Sugar, as also some Coffee and Cotton; was bound from St. Domingo for Bourdeaux, and was taken the 25th of May last in Lat. 30, deg. and 30 min. and Lon. 60: 54. Capt. Rosse lost his Armourer in the Engagement; and on board the Prize killed three, and wounded the second Captain.

We hear from the Eastward, That last Tuesday was Se'nnight Mr. John Smith at Broad-Bay, being at Work at a small Distance from his House, was beset by 3 or 4 Indians, who killed and scalped him, and took his Ax and split his Scull, leaving the Ax in his Head; and then went to his House, where was only his Wife, and her Son sick in the Bed, whom she was sitting by; one of the Indians went in and presented his Gun at the young Man, but missing Fire, he took his Knife, and attempted to stab him; but the Woman resolutely took hold of the Indian and turned him out of the House, and fastened the Door against them; telling her Son to take Care of himself, who immediately got down into the Cellar and hid himself, and so escaped; but they firing in at a Window, shot the Woman, killed her, and then entered the House, scalped her, and split her Head with a Hatchet; and plundered the House of Money, Cloaths, Provisions, and other Things, and went off. The young Man being then ill of a Fever has been since so bad, that 'tis thought he cannot recover.

June 27. Saturday last, the Embargo was taken off all Vessels bound from hence for Great-Britain and Ireland, &c.

Extract of a Letter from Halifax, dated June 3, 1757.

"The Fleet from England, with the Transports from Ireland, are not yet arrived. The Speedwell, Capt. Bond, went to Sea the 30th of May; the Success, of 20 Guns, sailed Yesterday, both to cruize and look out for the Fleet. A Brig arrived here Yesterday, the Master of which made Oath, that he saw nine Sail of large French Men of War on Sunday last, sailing North-Eastward, towards Cape-Breton. Capt. Rous has ordered the Winchelsea, Capt. Hale, of 20 Guns, and Jamaica, Capt. Thompson, of 14 Guns, to go to Sea immediately. We sail To-morrow, I imagine to peep into Louisburg, and also to look out for Admiral Holbourn.

P. S. The Ships above-mentioned, are thought to be the Men of War that went to Cape-François in the Month of March, and are now come so far with the Trade from St. Domingo; if true, may be of Service to your Privateers, to venture again more boldly to cruize off of Hispaniola.

The greatest Part of the above Privateers are now ready for Sea, and several of them will fall down to the Watering-Place in a few Days.

Yesterday Morning several Sloops arrived here from Albany, with a few of Otway's Men, designed to keep Garrison in Fort George, in this City.

By several Passengers who came in the above Sloops we learn, that about a Week ago, 20 Men with a Serjeant, were sent out from Fort-Edward, after some Deserters, who soon came up with and took three of them, but were afterwards fired upon by about 40 French and Indians, who killed and wounded so many of our People, that only 6 of the 20 were returned to Fort-Edward, with the Deserters; one of which three was hanged at Albany on Monday last, and the two others shot the next Day.

The same Day, a small French Privateer of six Guns was sent in here by the Hornet, Capt. Spelling, of this Port.

We hear that one Capt. Sears arrived at Norwalk, in Connecticut, last Friday, in 13 Days from Halifax, and says, that the seven French Men of War that were seen cruizing off that Place, had put into Louisburg.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.

On Monday last the Embargo was taken off here.

Since our last we have had several Letters and Reports from the Westward, relating to the French Army that was said to be marching towards Fort Cumberland, which vary considerably; but what may be depended on, or at least what is most probable, we think, is contained in the two following Extracts, viz.

Extract of a Letter from Carlisle, dated June 22.

"An Express arrived last Night from Fort Cumberland to Colonel Stanwix, on Receipt of which, the Waggons that were loaded, and ready to march this Morning, were unloaded, and discharged; but the Provincials are going to Fort Littleton, and are to march this Day. I am informed, and I believe it is true, that tho' the Enemy have neither Artillery nor Carriages, yet they are a very large Body, and are coming against this Province; whether they will disperse into small Parties, or attack together, I will not pretend to say; but either Way, I am afraid will prove fatal to the Frontier Settlements."

Extract of another Letter from the same Place, and of the same Date.

"Since I wrote to you Yesterday, an Express arrived from Fort Cumberland to Colonel Stanwix, who brings Advice, that all were well at that Place: That the Body of French had neither Great Guns nor Wheel Carriages with them, and that they seemed, by their March, to be designed for this Province: That it was supposed, when they advanced to our Frontiers, they would disperse into small Parties: And that the Cherokees have brought in two French Scalps from the Walls of Fort Duquesne, besides those mentioned in my last. Above forty Waggons, which were loaded Yesterday with Stores and Provisions, were all discharged this Morning."

ANNAPOLIS, July 7.

We are informed, that on Saturday last, as a Man was at Work in his Field, on this Side the South-Mountain, not far from Marsh-Creek, he heard a Screaming, and looking at his House saw two or three Indians entering into it, but being unable to subdue them, and in order to save his own Life, he made the best of his Way, and got off; and next Morning a Number of Men arm'd, went to the Place, but found the House burnt, and his Wife and Children are either Captivated or Murdered.

Last Tuesday Evening, Died here in an advanced Age, Mr. CHARLES COLE, Merchant, who had resided in this City above Forty Years, and was formerly a very considerable Trader. This Gentleman was a Batcheler, who, it is said, Repented of nothing in his latter Years, so much as that he had not Married while he was Young.

TO BE SOLD FOR READY MONEY,

On Tuesday in August Court, at Cambridge, to the Highest Bidder, by H. CALLISTER, who has a Special Power from the Proprietor for that Purpose upon Record,

A TRACT of LAND called Shadwell, alias Pig Point, now the Property and in the Possession of F. CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esquires, containing 500 Acres, more or less, lying in Dorchester County on Choptank River, seven Miles below the Bridge, commodiously situated for the purchasing Pork, Corn, &c. with a Store-House, Dwelling-House, &c. but much out of Repair, and but little clear'd Ground. Those who are inclined to purchase have Time to view the Premises. All Arrears of Quit-Rents have been paid down to about the End of the last Year.

H. CALLISTER, Agent for FOSTER CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still Consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already tried and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.
